Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Doug Herrmann, who started his career in juvenile justice approximately 30 years ago with the state of South Dakota Department of Corrections; and,

Whereas, Doug began his career with the Department of Corrections as a youth supervisor for State Treatment and Rehabilitation Academy in May 1979, and he served as director of Juvenile Services since June 2004; and,

Whereas, Doug has been a visionary leader, bringing a number of important improvements to juvenile justice such as Performance Based Standards, reducing recidivism, and increased credibility for the juvenile division; and,

Whereas, Doug always acknowledged with pride his "juvenile team", making him the kind of leader people respect and follow; and,

Whereas, On March 8, 2016, Doug will retire to spend more time with his wife, Marnie, and family:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 8, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, friends, and colleagues in offering him best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State
